

The Hub is the capabilities database for the UK composites sector used by the supply chain to find suppliers, manufacturers, consultants, designers, engineers, service providers and more. Use the search categories, advanced search or organisation list to find companies you can form partnerships with.

CLAIM YOUR LISTING IN THIS POWERFUL INDUSTRY DATABASE

If you're part of the composites supply chain, make sure your listing is live and up-to-date. It gives you:

Free advertising: All listings are free-of-charge. If your company is a Composites UK member your listing will be prioritised, meaning it comes up at the top of search results with your logo displayed alongside it.

An instant audience: Your profile available to potential customers 24/7.

Signposting via the Composites UK B2B Brokerage service: The Association itself utilises the Hub to answer enquiries from companies looking for a specific composite material, process, service or solution. This includes live enquiries at exhibitions such as JEC World and Advanced Engineering in addition to phone calls and emails.

The chance to influence government strategy: Be seen as an active part of a growing UK supply chain, informing government strategies and funding priorities.

An opportunity to contribute the global picture: Knowledge collated via The Hub helps to create an understanding of the size and position of the UK industry, which in turn influences key initiatives such as skills & training, recycling and more.
