

APPRENTICE OF THE YEAR AWARD

WINNER: Marcus Mullins

Marcus is highly motivated, with a keen eye for detail.

He is a valued team member and has integrated swiftly, picking up the skills and knowledge required very quickly.

By actively looking for tasks that will help contribute to our monthly deliveries, Marcus is well aware of his contribution and how he can make a positive impact to the business.

He continually seeks out opportunities to expand his knowledge and skillset both inside and outside Leonardo Helicopters which shows commitment to his personal growth and we are proud to support his development within the Dynamic Composite Components Team.
